p I think students should have a long summer holiday. Summer is the best season. Children will be sad if summer is the school season.

In my opinion it's better for learning, because teachers and children prefer to have a break after 9 months of school. If terms be longer we will not have a time to chill out, to sleep. Our grades will be worse. We will not hang out with our friends, will not have time for our family, for our interests and hobbies.

I would rather go on leisure activities on holidays and will realize my skills, learn something new, make a new friends, made something by myself, do sport and so on. Leisure activities on holidays better and more interesting than school.

By the way, one of the months can be home-educated. We will not forget school programm and we will seat at home and we will not get up early. It is good idea, I think.

All in all, people have different ways to do schools better. But if they are going to change the learning, it will be better to ask pupils. For me now is the best learning, and our country should not change our system of education.
